Wednesday Book Club: Readers are invited to join book club members in discussing The Shack by Wm. Paul Young at 1:30 pm, Wednesday, April 22 in AUMC's John Allen Memorial Library. The author writes, "The Shack is a fiction to tell a true story (like a parable) but it is really the story of my life. I have no good memories of my dad. Many people who have had childhoods where they learned a false image of a God who is someone who is not very lovable, have found through this book how to see him as their 'papa'."

BREAKFAST WITH THE BUNNY BENEFITS HABITAT

Many thanks to all who attended the Breakfast with the Bunny and contributed to the Habitat for Humanity fund. The Johnson house is expected to be completed by the end of April. Remaining work includes landscaping, installation of carpet, appliances and cabinets. AUMC members and friends worked April 4 and UMW generously provided a wonderful lunch for those working on all three houses at the site. See photos in the Fellowship Center.

Kids' Discovery Days invites all alumni families to join our Birthday Bash to celebrate our "15th Birthday" and mark the 10th year of NAEYC accreditation prior to our Family Science Night on Tuesday, April 21 at 6:30 pm. Come see fun pictures of our history as well as share with friends and other alumni your memories of preschool.

Our Stegosaurus Size Kids' Clothing Sale is next weekend,, April 17 & 18 from 8:00 am to 2:00 pm. We will accept donations of clothing sizes 0 to 12 as well as toys, books, yard play structures, and baby/child furniture and equipment beginning tomorrow. Come on Friday or Saturday to shop for your own children at GREAT bargain prices.

Watch for the Spring Plant Sale orders in the bulletin next week and in the next Circuit Rider. The Sale begins Sunday, May 3.

Coldwater Creek Fashion Coordination Show comes to AUMC

Flatirons Coldwater Creek models will present their first off-site Fashion Coordination Show at the Mother-Daughter Tea in AUMC Fellowship Center at 2 pm, Saturday, May 16. The three-part show for mature ladies, mothers and high school age-daughters features:

1. Outfit transformations using age-appropriate accessories.
2. How to use seven articles of clothing to make 21 outfits.
3. How to pack for a week and have different outfits for a month's vacation.

The Spring Tea and Fashion Show is sponsored by Lydia Ladies and ladies of other circles of Arvada United Methodist Women. Tickets for the event will be on sale through the circles and on Sunday, May 3 and May 10 in the Center following the worship services. Tables for eight guests may be reserved at the ticket sales table. Tickets for this mission benefit event are $10 for adults and $5 for daughters under 18 and ladies 65 plus. Child care services will be provided for young children.
